

2023 – “new to us” seminar presenters

Introducing Alice Cinotto

Alice Cinotto has been training and competing in agility since 2009 and has worked with a wide variety of dogs, both "on" and "off" breeds. Alice is known for her teaching ability, her ways of bringing out speed and confidence in soft or stressy dogs and her clear, smooth, and consistent handling on course.

Alice competes in USDAA, AKC, & UKI and has attended regional and national events, making podium placements with each of her three dogs and student's dogs. She has earned MACHs on multiple of her own dogs and was a National finalist at the 2023 NAC. Alice competed overseas at the 2017 IFCS World Agility Championships with her 6 year old Border Collie Tess and again in 2018 with her 2 year old Border Collie Mystery, earning multiple top 10 placements. She was named as an alternate team member to the USA's 2020 European Open team and to the 2023 AWC "short list."

Saturday, November 11 — 8:00 am – 12:00 pm . . . . . Young or newbie agility dogs Discriminations, sends, commitment, speed, stress, confidence, obstacle performance

Saturday, November 11 — 1:00 – 5:00 pm. . . . . Novice, Open, Level 3, Excellent, Weaves, contacts, speed, stress & more advanced sends and distance work

Sunday, November 12 — 8:00 am – 12:00 pm. . . . . , , , Excellent/Masters, C-ATCH Advanced course work & handling skills, developing distance, speed & confidence

Sunday, November 12 — 1:00 – 5:00 pm. . . . . Experienced Masters and CATE ISC, Premier, UKI international course work and advanced handling challenges & skill development

COST - - - - $150